Adult Literacy Reading Group @Dublin Library

Tuesdays, January 19 through May 3, 6:00-8:00 PM in the Library Program Room

Reading groups are an opportunity for adults to practice their English language conversational skills. Members read the same book and then discuss it at weekly meetings. New learners must schedule an appointment for an orientation and a reading assessment. To join a group, please call the "Write to Read" Adult Literacy office at (510) 745-1480. The minimum requirement is an intermediate reading level in English.

African Village Celebrations

Sunday, February 7, 2:00-3:00 PM in the Library Community Room

Onye Onyemaechi, founder of Village Rhythms, brings the joy and soul of African culture, music and the celebration of village life to audiences throughout the world. This program is suitable for the whole family. Free tickets will be handed out 15 minutes before the start of the program.

Daniel Bennett Group

Sunday, April 24, 2:00-3:30 PM

The group performs a mix of Modern Jazz, fused with elements of American Folk and experimental classical music, featuring saxophone, guitar and drums. Visit www.danielbennettgroup.com for more information about the group. Free. All ages welcome!
